COLUMBIA

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Roberts and their son Perry of Tenney, N. J., who have been taking an automobile trip in New England, spent Wednesday and Thursday in town, visiting relatives. William Wolff is driving a recently purchased automobile.

Mrs. Irene M. Mann, formerly teacher at the Chestnut Hill school, has removed her engagement at the school in Haverhill for another year.

Elizabeth Collins and Evelyn Woodward who have been attending Smith college during the past year, arrived at their homes last week for the summer vacation.

Three suits against Morris Blum in connection with the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor, which had been appealed to the superior court and were to have been tried in Rockville Tuesday last, were settled out of court by Blum Monday last.

Miss Nellie Hunt, who recently was thrown out of her wagon when it was upset because the horse was frightened, is able to be about, although both ankles were badly sprained.

Robert C. Kearney of Manchester was before Justice Raymond E. Clarke Wednesday morning last, charged with the theft of parts of an automobile which had been wrecked on the highway in Columbia on the previous Saturday evening. Probable cause was found and he was bound over to the superior court under a writ of $500, which were furnished by Mrs. Ellen McWhorter.

Fred H. Avery and family were in town at their cottage on the Green over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Decker of East Hartford as their guests.

R. O. Proctor of Washington, vice secretary to Vice President Coolidge, is spending a vacation in town with his family, who are occupying for the summer the residence of the late Joseph H. Hutchins.

The district schools in town held their graduation exercises Thursday evening at the Congregational church which was well filled with friends of the graduates, who were Katie Bebeck, Old Hope River; Ruth Eva Blais, Old Hope River; Clara Cora Carpenter, Earl Lawrence Holbrook, Benjamin Wernum and Tetis Rose Wernum, Pine street; Helen Marion German, Jacob Greenwood and Sophie Elk, West street; Sarah Amelia Staciari and Donald Edgar Woodward, Center.

The following program was given: Prayers, Mrs. Abigail Prof. Morgan St. John of the Normal school, Wilburham; prayer, Rev. T. Newton Owen, America; the beautiful, chorus; our first school, Flag of our Nation, chorus; Florence Nightingale, Ruth Slater; music, Prof. Morgan St. John; The Builders, Donald Woodward; Lullaby, chorus; Rise and Fall of the Roman Empire, Sarah Staciari; Rhythmic Drills, Congregational Hill school; Meaning of American Citizenship, Karl Holbrook; songs, first grade; Abraham Lincoln, graduates of West Street school; Old Folks at Home, chorus; address, Rev. Harry R. McCready; presentation of diplomas, Secretary Clayton Hunt; America, all.

Praise is due Prof. Morgan St. John for his efforts in making a success of the musical portion of the program, which by his genius he accomplished with very few rehearsals. A fine impression was made by Sarah Staciari with her original composition and his delivery, on The Roman Empire. It is the intention of all the graduates to attend high school next year if possible.

Three of the teachers, Lydia H. Freitag of the West Street school, Grace A. Johnson, Pine street school and Ruby M. Williams of the Chestnut Hill school, do not expect to return here next fall.

The green at the center is looking very beautiful now. It was mowed last week by Edwin Collins.

Sunday next, Children's Day, will be observed at the local Congregational church.

A card party followed by a dance was held at the town hall Saturday evening last, but because of the shower only a few attended.

Rev. T. Newton Owen preached Sunday morning a very impressive sermon from Romans 8:24, Saved by Hope, stating that Hope is desire and expectation; one without the other does not constitute hope, and without hope our lives are dead.

Where Potatoes Run High.
In Chicago potatoes in car lots are selling at thirty cents a bushel. A year ago they were $1.50, going to show that potatoes have been deflated, except, in restaurants--Pittsburgh Gazette.

Farmington--Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Oreston Newton Barney of Farmington to the wedding of their daughter, Miss Sarah Brandegee Barney and Hallett Lufford of New York on Saturday, June 25, at 5 o'clock at the Congregational church, Farmington.
